SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15. 1737.

7120.

Yesterday arrived the Mails due from Holland, France and Flanders.

Petersburg, Sept. 20. O. S.

ESTERDAY the Court had Advice from Count Munich, whose Army is incamped 40 Miles from Oczakow, that he and Prince Anthony-Urick of Wolfembottle, are set out to examine the Fortifications of that Town and Kimburn. Mean Time he presses for the Dispatch of the Materials for rebuilding Oczakow, as well as for the Ammunition and Provisions necessary for replenishing the Magazines. We are informed, that one great Reason why so many Turks were massacred at Oczakow, was the Obstinacy of a good Number of Janissaries, who flying into Cellars, Vaults and Caves, after the Taking of that Town, chose rather to kill themselves than surrender; inasmuch that One of the Bashas, named Osman Beech, was his own Executioner, rather than he would fall into the Hands of the Russians.

Belgrade, Sept. 23. O. S. An Express is gone thro' this Place for Vienna, with Advice that on the 17th Instant the Army under the Count and Velt-Marshall de Khevenhuller, was attacked not far from Orsova, by above 15,000 Turks; but that after an obstinate Fight the Turks were repulsed with considerable Loss. Some Advices say that the latter had block'd up the City of Nissa.

Yesterday a Captain arriv'd here, whom the Count de Khevenhuller dispatch'd to our Major-General and Commandant, with the Particulars of the aforesaid Action, as follows.

When the Count de Khevenhuller first began to block up Widdin, he had under his Command above 20,000 Men, who by Detachments from thence upon several Occasions, of 7 Regiments of Horse and 4 of Foot, were reduced to 5000. The Turks who were advanced into Wallachia, hearing how much his Army was weakened, resolved to take that Advantage of attacking him. For this Purpose, on the 17th Instant, 16,000 Men, Part of that Reinforcement which was arrived from Asia, passed the Danube in a great Number of small Vessels, and came ashore near the Place where that River receives the Timok; and over the latter they immediately began to lay two Bridges. Upon the first Notice which the Count had of their Approach, he sent out a strong Detachment of Imperial and Saxon Grenadiers, who hinder'd them from going on with one of the Bridges; but the other being finish'd, the Turks thereby passed the Timok, put the Detachment of Grenadiers to Flight, and proceeding in good Order made a Motion to surround the Main Body of the Germans, and attack'd it with Fury.

The Count de Khevenhuller, tho' the Enemy's Forces were Two Thirds in Number more than his, made one of the most gallant Defences possible. The Battle lasted till Night, and the Turks were obliged to return over the Timok. The Germans having left but a Handful of Men to guard their Camp, because of the Necessity there was of putting every Soldier that could be spared upon Action, the Russians, whom the Enemy had with them, enter'd it, carry'd off most Part of the Baggage, set Fire to the rest, and put all the Sick that were in the Camp to the Sword, to the Number of no less than 800. The Count de Khevenhuller remained Master of the Field of Battle, but did not think it safe to keep it longer than next Day; for Fear lest the Enemy should return with still greater Numbers. Besides, he would not have been able to have continu'd the Blockade of Widdin, for Want of Subsistence; therefore he abandoned it next Morning, and repass'd the Timok. On the 19th he march'd, and arriv'd next Day at Persa-Palanka, on the Side of the Danube, opposite to Orsova.

In the aforesaid Action the Emperor's Troops lost 200 Men, and had 300 Wounded: But the Loss of the Turks is abundantly greater; for 'tis computed they had above 1500 Men kill'd, there being near 1000 left dead on the Spot, in which Number are several Turkish Officers.

Vienna, Sept. 28. O. S. The Count de Sonau, an Officer in the Troops under Command of the Count de Khevenhuller arrived the 24th at Court, with an Account of the Action between the Imperialists and Turks near Widdin, on the 17th, which began at 2 o'Clock in the Afternoon, and held till Night; when 1500 Turks were kill'd, besides 1000 left dead on the Field of Battle.

M. Schernting, Count de Seckendorff's Aid-de-Camp arrived here the Day before Yesterday, with News that the Fortress of Usitza in Servia, which that General caused to be attack'd, surrender'd the 20th at Night, after a Week's Siege: That the Garrison capitulated on the same Terms as that of Nissa; and that on the 22d it march'd out of the Fortress for Vicegrad, under Convoy of an Imperial Detachment. 'Tis thought that the Count de Seckendorff will suspend his March towards Bosnia, that he may be at hand to relieve Nissa, in Case the Turks make any Attempt to surprize it. The late Count Francis de Wallis, who dy'd in Transilvania, after a short Illness, will, 'tis said, be succeeded in the Government of that Province, by Count Oliver de Wallis, his Brother, or else by the Prince of Lobkowitz.

The Count de Tarouca, the Portuguese Ambassador, had his Audience of Leave some Days ago of the Emperor, when his Majesty made him a Present of his Picture adorn'd with Diamonds, to the Value of 20000 Florins.

On Sunday an Express arriv'd from the Prince of Saxe-Hilburghausen, to inform the Court, that the said Prince having recover'd his Health, had pass'd the Save, between Rattha and Sabasch, and on the 23d Instant was but one March from the Army under the Count de Seckendorff.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever, And also of

IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of so long Standing,

The Famous and Inestimable PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended.

BEING the only true and infallible Cure for BARRENNESS in Women and IMPOTENCY in Men in the Universe, and which it at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd; as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the cheerful Curricie of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid, depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and sensibly it renovates, recruits, and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inspires a bright, lively Disposition, banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression. Abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deemed incurably barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and become Fruitful; and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living, or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, inasmuch, that very many illustrious Families, who for want of Children, were almost inconceivable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs. It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even keeps back the Effects of Old Age itself. It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.
